. The plaintiff Nos.1 and 2 have presented this petition/suit for divorce with mutual consent under section 32-B of the Parsi Divorce and Marriage Act, 1936. Both of them are represented by common Advocate Ms.A.S.Khushrushali. The consent terms incorporated at Exh. 'B' were read over to plaintiff Nos.1 and 2, who are personally present before the Court. Both of them admit contents thereof. In para-8 of the petition/suit, both parties have admitted that they are staying separately since October, 2004. Both the plaintiffs have filed affidavits in support of the petition/suit for divorce by mutual consent. The same are taken on record.

2. Both, plaintiff Nos.1 and 2, agree that the consent terms on which they are seeking divorce by mutual consent have been settled by them after negotiation without any pressure or coercion and are acceptable to them. Having examined the consent terms, I am satisfied that the consents terms are reasonable and can be accepted.

3. In the above view of the matter, following order:

O R D E R

. The marriage of plaintiff Nos.1 and 2 stands dissolved by decree of divorce by mutual consent on the terms and conditions set out in Exh'B' forming part and parcel of the petition/suit.
